SUPPLEMENT.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1880.

Democratic Economy.

Occasionally is found a Democratic politician unwise enough to claim for their party in Congress a record of economy and reduction of expenses since they came in power. That party has had a majority in one branch of Congress for nearly five years, and for two years in both. They set out with great pretensions of proposed reductions of expenditures, clipping here and there the salaries of clerks and reducing the number—in some cases seriously obstructing public business. They withheld necessary appropriations and afterwards made it up with deficiency bills.

In 1875, the last year Republicans had a majority in both houses, the appropriations were $147,714,740. At the next session the Democrats controlled the House, and by refusing to appropriate for some of the most necessary expenses of the Government, reduced the appropriations to $124,122,010, and the year following to $88,356,983. But the following session, to make good deficiencies and repair faults committed, they appropriated $172,016,809, being $25,000,000 more than was appropriated in 1876. In 1880 they appropriated $162,404,647, and for 1881 they appropriated $154,118,212, or $7,000,000 more than the appropriations made by the Republicans when they controlled the House.

Thus it is shown from the actual records of the Government that all this boasting about Democratic economy, in a time of profound peace, has resulted in an increase of appropriations from year to year. During this time no reductions of taxation or measures of relief to the industrial interests of the country have been advanced by that party.

Republican Drummings.

Whenever a chronic Republican office-seeker becomes obnoxious and is kicked out of the party, or if he happens to get left from time to time, it generally relieves his pent up Utica to take rapid strides into the Democratic fold. And it is a curious fact that the Democracy delights to receive such people. Take their nominations year after year, or even glance at their leaders and see how true this is. E. G. Ross, an ex-Republican who betrayed his constituents in Congress they nominated for Governor. L. F. Green, another Republican apostate: is nominated for Congress. Tom. Moonlight is nominated for Presidential Elector.

Here in our county they have those distinguished apostles Jones and Acers, not forgetting their latest acquisition—Dr. Heudricks. Their names are synonymous of reform and their abilities as leaders, unquestioned. Verily, our Democratic party is a nice mess of salmagundi. The names we have given do not by any means comprise the list of those who have shouldered themselves to the front and the old Democratic leaders to the rear. It is a rare old picture of reform and purity.

General Grant, who led the armies of the Union in the fiercest rebellion that ever threatened the life of a nation, and who wears upon his brow the fadeless laurels of Appomattox, is talking for Garfield and the Republican party. Wade Hampton, Ben Hill, Vestige Wiper Blackburn and Jeff Davis, all of whom were in arms against the government they were bound by every sense of duty to protect, and who are still unrepentant and unreconstructed rebels, are throwing up their hats for Hancock and the Democracy. This is one of the cases in which the distinction is accompanied by a large-sized difference.

Lew. F. Green, the Greenback candidate for Congress in this district, recently said to prominent gentlemen in a conversation with them in front of the Planter's House in Baxter Springs: "The Greenbackers of Kansas would willingly unite with the Democrats in giving this State's electoral vote to Hancock, if it were not that the great Republican majority renders it impossible for fusion to be a success."—Columbus Courier.

A residence of six months in the State and thirty days in the township or county makes a man a legal voter in Kansas.

A Case of Twenty-Five Years' Standing.

(From the venerable Archdeacon Scott, D.D., of Dunham, P. Q.)

"I am an inveterate dyspeptic of more than twenty-five years' standing."
"I have been so wonderfully humiliated in the three short weeks during which I have used the Peruvian Syrup that I can scarcely persuade myself of the reality. People who have known me are astonished at the change. I am widely known, and can but recommend to others that which has done so much for me." Sold by Jno. W. Scott.

Oh! What a Cough.

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford, for the sake of saving 50 cents, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a million bottles were sold the past year. It relieves croup, and whooping cough, at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For Rume back, side, or chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Sold by R. B. Stevenson.

Dobbins' Electric Soap.

Having obtained the agency of this celebrated soap for Geneva and vicinity I take pleasure in calling attention to the following testimonials of some of our best people as to its merits:

"As a time, labor and money saving article, I take pleasure in recommending Dobbins' Electric Soap to my neighbors. I have used it, and it is the best soap I ever saw. It promises a great deal, but it does all it promises."

Mrs. H. N. Knowlton.

I have no hesitation in saying the housekeeper should not be without Dobbins' Electric Soap. I heartily recommend it to all my neighbors. Try it and you will use no other.

R. B. Howang.

I would not undertake to do a house washing without it. It certainly saves half the labor.

Mrs. O. C. Linn.

I do not hesitate to pronounce Dobbins' Soap to be the best I ever used. The rapidity and ease with which it enables one to do one's washing is really surprising. Boiling the clothes is unnecessary and no rubbing is needed. I would not be without it.

LAURA STILLWAGON.

I have made arrangements with the manufacturers in Philadelphia, so that I can furnish the soap in any quantity desired.
